

PRESS RELEASE

HEDNO: Arrest of person who injured his employee on the island of Syros

HEDNO would like announce that police authorities arrested the person who caused serious injuries to an employee of HEDNO on 25 July 2017, on the island of Syros. The assailant was brought to justice within the in flagrante procedure time frame and was sentenced to 4 months and 20 days of imprisonment with three years of sentence suspension.

HENDO reiterates its strongest disapproval of such extreme behaviors and stresses its commitment to respond firmly and within the law to events of this kind, consistently ensuring the safety of its staff by showing zero tolerance against incidents of harassment, bullying, and violence.

HEDNO Management would like to address their sincere thanks to the police authorities for their prompt response that resulted in the arrest of the assailant.

Athens, Friday, July 28, 2017

Press Office