

PRESS RELEASE

HEDNO holds a satisfaction and commitment survey of its employees:
“HEDNO listens: we build the future together”

Having as a motto the message: “HEDNO listens: we build the future together”, the Company started on Monday, 19 March 2018, a satisfaction and commitment survey of its employees.

The survey concerns the entire staff of the Company - approximately 7,000 employees - and shall be carried out in a period of 6 months. Each employee will be able to freely express their opinions anonymously and secretly about the critical issues related to HEDNO’s present but also to its future.

The aim of the survey is to record and assess the staff’s views to find the main areas for improvement in the daily operation of the Company and the working conditions.

Furthermore, the staff, having the experience and the knowledge about the needs and challenges faced by HEDNO, can offer valuable directions for its progress and quality upgrading of the provided services.

The Chairman and CEO of HEDNO, Mr. N. Chatziargyriou stated the following: “HEDNO, in its effort to modernize and transform the Company into a modern Network Operator, has its human resources as its key lever of development. For HEDNO’s Management, a key priority and basic condition to achieve its strategic targets is to establish transparent and effective internal communication channels allowing the employees to express their opinions, their needs but also their expectations.”

Athens, March 20, 2018

Press Office