HEDNO: Abhorrent attack against employees

HEDNO would like to express its deepest regret but also its indignation about the brutal attack against two of its employees by a consumer on Friday, 10 August 2018, in Herakleio, Crete.

HEDNO Management believes that it is imperative the guilty parties to be exemplary punished and is committed that all necessary measures shall be taken, exhausting all margins of severity provided by the Law.

Tolerance to any kind of harassment, bullying and, moreover, violence phenomena is zero and the Company's Management is determined to protect its employees from the antisocial behaviours of some consumers.

We also express our heartfelt support and solidarity to the unfortunate employees and their families.
